

I want my website to look clean and professional, but colorful and fun. It makes sense to me to have my "About Me" page as my home page. I want my website to be simple and user friendly too. Overall, I want to design an effective and efficient website that expresses who I am through color, layout, font, etc.